DETAILS:

My wife [REDACTED] from Glendale, Arizona and myself [REDACTED] from Glendale, Arizona, my brother-in-law [REDACTED] from Phoenix, Arizona, friend [REDACTED] from a suburb around Dallas, Texas, friend Master Sergeant USAF [REDACTED] currently stationed at Fort Bragg in North Carolina, were attending Route 91 Harvest Festival on the evening of October 1, 2017. This was mine and my wife's fourth (4th) year attending the Festival, we had been every year since it started.

The five (5) of us watched the two (2) prior artist perform, before Jason Aldean took the stage, from fifteen (15) feet from the stage, on our right side of the stage, as circled and marked as No. 1 on the attached map. About ten (10) minutes before Jason took the stage my wife and I moved fifteen (15) feet back still on the right side of the stage, ending up just to the right side of the trailer bar alongside the stage, being about thirty (30) feet from the stage, putting us in the corner separating GA and VIP area, as circled and marked as No. 2 on the attached map. My brother-in-law and two (2) friends stayed at the fifteen (15) foot mark where we had been standing. We did this because my wife and I are short and the crowd started to compact and we could not see the stage.

During Jason's 5th song, a VERY loud static noise occurred (the 1st thirty (30) round clip) it was very obviously coming from directly behind us, I thought it was static from the speakers and sound system because it was so loud that I could not hear the band or Jason, then realized there were no speakers behind us, we and no one around us, at that time, took cover. Then about ten (10) seconds later, another thirty (30) round clip was fired, when this occurred large pieces of confetti flew overhead of us and we thought it was fireworks from the show or from someone in the VIP area and we started to duck down and others did too. Ten (10) seconds later the 3rd thirty (30) round clip was fired, Jason made a run for it off the stage, we knew then it was definitely gunfire but only knew it was directly behind us.

Another concert goer, a man, to my right, threw the gate opened to the VIP area and my wife grabbed my hand and we ran towards the gunfire through that gate because the closest cover was there. We ended up on the left side of the little food trailer that was next to the trailer bar, ending up beside a large smoker for that food trailer, as circled and marked as No. 3 on the attached map. I threw my wife and several women trying to run by under a 2x4 metal restaurant kitchen prep style table, sitting to the left of this smoker, there was about 8 of us that ended up there.

<NOTE: It is VERY important to understand that we stayed there for the entire shooting and the entire time we thought the shooter was a hundred feet (100) away on the other side of the covered fence, in the street, in front of us. The rounds were so loud, we had no idea he was up in the hotel shooting. We (I) thought we needed to make a run for it because if he came down the fence line we would have nowhere to go. There were NO uniformed LVMPD police officers on the inside area of the concert venue, NONE. We REALLY needed someone with a gun and radio, loud speaker maybe, to tell us to stay put because he was up in the hotel and not on the ground as we thought.>

<NOTE: When we ended up behind the smoker, I notice the main venue lights came on lighting up the entire venue! Video I saw after the fact shows the lights down for Jason to perform, then the lights go out when he runs, then the lights fully come up showing the entire venue. I WANT ANSWERS, this enabled the shooter to see where everyone was located, even if we could run, we were not able to because we were lit up like a fishbowl! Was this an automatic lighting feature of when the stage lighting was turned off or did someone turn them on? If someone purposely turned them on, I have no blame in that person because I brutally know the chaos and mayhem that was around us. This training needs to be in the planning of an event and this should not be an automatic feature of lighting.>

<NOTE: We had nowhere to run as there were no exits on this side or the other side of the stage, up front! At the time I was glad as we (I) thought he was on the other side of the fence. But also thought if he entered in the entrance on the other side of the VIP area, we again would have nowhere to run. This also needs to be looked at for future events.>

I counted approximately eighteen (18) thirty (30) round clips in a row of what I first thought was Uzi then realized there was no burp and it must be AR15 (strictly a guess) and then felt relief as one (1) clip of maybe fifteen (15) rounds of a much larger round, thought maybe a AK47, had (have) no idea of what LVMPD carry, but thought at that time LVMPD finally made it to our end of the street (we thought he was in the street), but very shortly after that clip, another five (5) to six (6) thirty (30) round clips were continually fired again.

There was a long pause after that last shot/clip, we waited maybe two (2) minutes and shuffled to the right of us and ended up behind the trailer bar next to the stage and found several others were there too and could not move as people were packed in. I do not remember another thirty (30) round clip but my wife states there was one fired while we were behind the trailer bar. My wife and I waited another four (4) minutes and thought it was time to make a run for it as there had been no fire for about six (6) minutes, plus we still believed he was in the street. Most people that were there behind and beside the trailer bar ran alongside the front of the stage to the other side of the field, my wife and I ran the length of the field where we witness several deceased individuals (there was no movement from any and some were very obviously deceased). We ran the length because I did not want to give the shooter a line of fire like those running alongside the stage to the other side to the other front corner of the venue.

<NOTE: We now know we made a huge mistake by running because days later we found out it took LVMPD seventy-five (75) minutes to enter the shooter's room which means he could have continued to fire, at any time, including when we and most others remaining ran across the field. Luckily he did not. We were the last of fifteen (15) people of the twenty-two thousand (22,000) attending to get out of the venue with the exception of those under the stage, behind the stage and under a tour bus. This is why it was critical to have a LVMPD police officer in there with a radio (and gun, any gun) to let us know if we should run or stay put, we (I) guessed and guessed wrong. When finally running out of the venue, we still did not see any LVMPD uniformed officers in the venue.>

<NOTE: On my iPhone, I get Amber Alerts, Bad Weather Alerts and during the eleven (11) minutes of automatic gunfire and seventy (75) minutes later it took to gain entry into the shooter's room, NO Active Shooter Alert with any details. Needs to be set up and should be very easily done.>

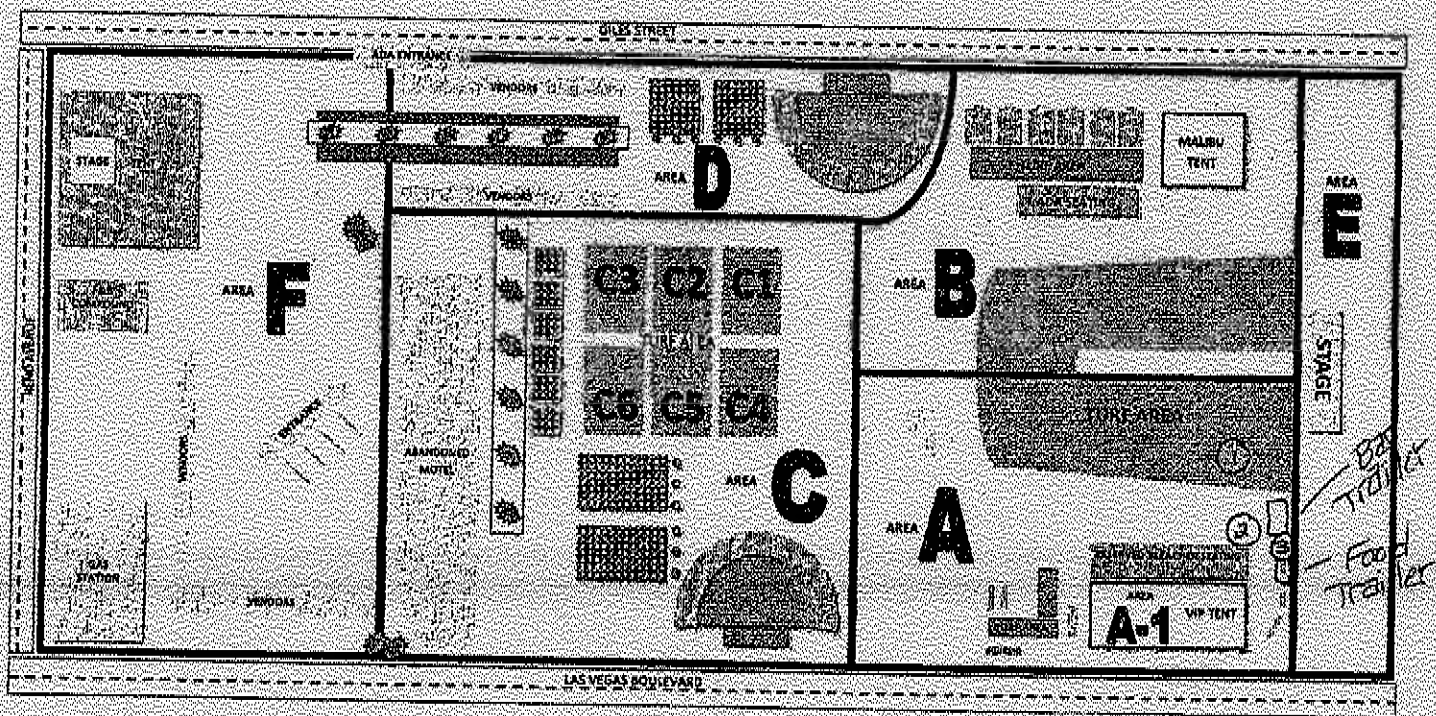

<NOTE: It took us from the time of the first shot, about one (1) hour and fifteen (15) minutes to gather our group together (all five (5) of us made it out uninjured (separated four (4) ways) with the exception of the tweaking of my right knee) and got back to the Excalibur Hotel, where we were staying. NO ONE in the casino area (guests/gamblers) knew what was going on outside with an active shooter, because NO ONE from the hotel was saying anything to anyone and allowing all to enter without checking bags, at that point they needed to. Lockdown did not occur until about two (2) hours after the shooting. VERY SLOW acknowledgement by the hotel staff. My understanding from security there, the hotel did not lock down until LVMPD told them to. VERY UNACCEPTABLE.>

<NOTE: I heard every round and felt every shot from the first shot to the last shot and there was never an overlapping of the rounds coming in at us. Really, no chance to choreograph the shooting between shooters. Just my input.>

WE WERE 4-5 SONGS INTO JASON ALDEANS SET AT THE ROUTE 91 FESTIVAL
WHEN A LOT OF POPPING SOUNDS STARTED. AT FIRST WE THOUGHT IT WAS FIREWORKS. THEY SOUNDED, TO ME, LIKE THEY WERE COMING FROM THE DIRECTION OF THE MANDALAY BAY HOTEL OR IT COULD HAVE BEEN
FROM SOMEONE IN THE CROWD. THE POPPING SOUNDS STARTED AGAIN
AND SOMEONE FINALLY YELLED "SHOOTER AND RUN". WE FIRST DROPPED DOWN TO AVOID THE SHOTS TO STOP THEM WE GOT UP
AND STARTED RUNNING TOWARDS THE BACK OF THE VENDOR SHOPS.
AS I WAS ABOUT TO RUN BEHIND THE BUILDING, I HEARD MORE SHOTS
THEN FELT ONE HIT MY RIGHT FOOT. ALL I FELT WAS THE PAIN AND THEN THE SQUISH OF MY BLOOD. IT SOUNDED LIKE THE SHOTS WERE GETTING CLOSER SO WE KEPT RUNNING UNTIL
WE MADE IT TO THE HOOTERS HOTEL. CALLED 911 AND MADE IT TO THE HOSPITAL.

I was coming back from break. I was working on taking out the trash. I saw a few artists were sitting with loud bangs. When we hear four bangs we thought it was part of the show. The there was a break and then there were lots of shots. We were in an alley where people started running towards. The alley was behind the stage. We took shelter behind the trash containers with many others. When we were behind the trash everything was so slow. We stayed there for about 20 minutes. Then I walked towards my car. I still heard the bullets. The car was parked near some apartments. There were lots of crying people hiding underneath the cars. No one knew where to go because everything was close. I called my friend because he had my car keys. He said he did and we met @ my car. When we drove out and saw injured people in cars or carts. We left via the church. I was with Sam and his wife. His wife was terrified. When we were heading out we saw police heavily armed. We drove home. I feel bad I survived. For the ones was at Route 91 Concert, Jason Aboon was a few songs into his set when what sounded like fireworks turned into lots of shots. Jason was knocked off of the stage and then the crowd took off running towards the venue entrance. First heard about 10 pops, and then a 5 second pause and then a lot more (dozens). Sounded like shots were coming from Mandalay Bay. Southside of the Excalibur, around 11:15 pm we saw 5 person guys heading East bound on Reno dr, just west of Vegas Blvd. All were dressed in night club attire (black button up). We hid in a broom closet. The five guys were walking in a single file line, about 5 feet between each person. The 5th and final guy had what appeared to be a black assault rifle and shoulder strap across his chest.

EE: Um, my friend [REDACTED] was standing to my left. The, um, we were in front of the stage. Uh, the Mandalay Bay Hotel was to my right and, uh, we - [REDACTED] - my friend who was standing next to me - thought that she heard firecrackers in the crowd and, uh, just kinda made a comment about how that was lame and, uh, then we heard a second set of firecrackers go off and at that point I felt like I'd been kinda punched in my - my shoulder. Um, and I went to feel my shoulder and there was a pretty big - kinda felt like a ball was in my - under my skin and, uh, I was losing a lot of blood and I told her I'd been hit and she didn't know what - what I meant, um...

EE: Um, but I was losing a lot of blood and, uh, at that time, like, nobody at the concert really had reacted to anything yet. It was pretty early...

DM: Because everyone thought the same thing you did.

EE: Yeah. And so, um, I kinda fell to the ground and, uh, she had to like tell people around me to, like, back up, um, 'cause they were still paying attention to - to Jason Aldean who was playing. And, uh, so at that time the - there were a couple of guys in front of me. I think they were medics. And, uh, they were able to hold compression on my chest...

DM: Guys you didn't know?

EE: Yeah.

DM: Okay.

EE: Um, but - do you want me to go through like, the whole...

DM: No, no, no. You're doing good.

Um - um, it sounded like they were, like, in the crowd though so everybody - it was kinda, you know, panicked. You couldn't tell where it was coming from. Or I couldn't. Um, and so my friend [REDACTED] like, laid on top of me and, uh, we were able to eventually when - the firing kinda stopped for a

DETAILS I was standing on the Neon Lounge VIP deck walking towards the stairs to head to back of house. Shots started firing & guest thought it was pyro for the show. I knew the show didn't have pyro & knew what gunshots sounded like so I got the guests down & hide behind the bar. Everyone was freaking out & I kept trying to keep our guest calm as "undercover cop" / a man who identified himself as that told us to go low and quick. I informed our guest to run & go! I ran across the festival through the food truck row & out of gate 4a (think?) ADA gate. There was a gentleman in the road and people were trying to give him CPR! Guest were climbing the fence etc. I ran into a parking lot & ended up taking cover in Hooters Hotel.

DETAILS Approx 10:15pm during Jason Aldean ^{from the right side of the} ~~noises~~ that sounded like fireworks occurred. The artist kept playing until more sounds of gunfire occurred. People were bleeding and everyone either got down on the ground or started running. The artist ran from the stage. [^] It was approximately 3-5 rounds of shots. We crawled our way to the fence by the stage ^{saw numerous bodies on the ground} and waited until the shots sounded like they stopped at which point we ran towards the left of the stage, jumped the fence and hid under the stage where a male victim possibly in his 40's-50s was injured. We waited approx. 5-10 minutes before exiting past the trailers and down the road until we were inside Tropicana Hotel. Everything was calm after an approx 10 minute alarm until a crowd started running and we entered MGM at approx. 11:20pm. We exited MGM around 3:45am by bus to the evacuation ~~area~~ arena.

DETAILS We were watching the last concert of the Night, Las Vegas, it sounded like someone had lit some firecrackers, just a few pops here and there. Then the pops got longer, more & more. The band ran off stage, people were running. We got down & the pops kept going. We tried to seek cover behind the bar to our left but the bullets were hitting the bottles. That's when I felt one graze my arm. We got down low and ran to the right trying to get out. We couldn't get out so we ducked behind a generator in front of the bathrooms. Someone opened a gate when the pops stopped & we ran out. The pops started again so we ran back into the gate a few yards down & took cover behind some sort of metal structure. We stayed for a bit. The pops stopped. Someone yelled there was a truck to take the injured. So we got on & were driven to an ambulance. Then transported to UMC.

DETAILS

We were on the left-hand side of the stage (if facing stage) and heard what we thought were firecrackers popping. People started saying "those aren't firecrackers it's gun fire, get down." My friends & I crouched down but then the crowd started to run for the exits. Concerned that we would be trampled we started to move towards the exits. All the time we could hear the popping of gunfire going off. At first it sounded far away, and from the Mandalay Bay location but then it sounded like the gun fire may have been coming from some where closer than there. I was hiding behind a water truck and the gun fire sounded very close, like maybe it was less than a mile away. I just started running away from the venue & ended up in a field first and then a plane hanger. The police were

DESCRIPCION DETALLADA ESTÁBAMOS ESPERANDO AL TREN EN EL HOTEL MANDALAY PARA QUE NOS LLEVARA A NUESTRO HOTEL, EL LUXOR HOTEL. LLEVÁBAMOS UN RATO ESPERANDO A QUE VINIERA, PERO NO VENÍA. DE REPENTE VIMOS A DOS HOMBRERES CORRER A TODA PRISA HACIA EL TREN, Y AL VER QUE LAS PUERTAS ESTABAN CERRADAS, SE FUERON CORRIENDO ESCALERAS ABAJO. MI MUJER Y YO NO LE DIMOS IMPORTANCIA PUES PENSAMOS QUE SERÍAN UNOS BORRACHOS O QUITA' POLICÍAS DE INSGÉNITO. COMO NO VENÍA EL TREN, OPTAMOS POR IRNOS CAMINANDO HACIA NUESTRO HOTEL, PERO AL SALIR A LA CALLE VIMOS QUE ENTRABA LA GENTE DESPAVORIDA Y DECÍAN QUE NOS QUEDÁSEMOS DENTRO DEL HOTEL. PASARON COMO UNO O DOS MINUTOS CUANDO NOS DIO UN VIGIANTE DE SEGURIDAD DEL MANDALAY QUE SAQUIERAMOS A LA CALLE PARA ESTAR ASEGURADOS, TODO SEGÚN DIO LA POLICÍA, Y DESDE ENTONCES HACEMOS LO QUE DICE LA POLICÍA.

We were watching concert on the side closest to handicap seating. First heard pops but everyone thought they were firecrackers. Then the "shots" continued and the crowd began running toward back of facility. We ran toward airport - I saw several people who were bloody - one girl was down by parking area - unsure if she was shot there or had run there.

I was on the top level of coca-cola lounge during the festival. Heard gunshots and saw people running from the middle of the crowd towards the back. When running down the stairs behind lounge I got hit on my left side above my waist. We jumped the fence and ran to my car in vip lot. Had to leave my car because so many people were running by and then I ran to mern.

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

CA: So, um, you know, we're just enjoying the concert like everybody else and...

JS: Who's we?

CA: Oh, sorry, me and my best friend.

JS: Okay.

CA: [REDACTED]

JS: Okay.

CA: Um, and we heard, ah, what sounded like firecrackers, you know, just like...

JS: Mm-hm.

CA: ...(simulating the sounds of gunfire), you know, type - it wasn't really very loud but, um, it just sounded like firecrackers.

JS: Yeah.

CA: And my friend actually made the comment, "You know, I hope people aren't being stupid and, you know, messing with firecrackers 'cause they're gonna cause a stampede and people are gonna get killed," you know, type thing.

JS: Right.

CA: 'Cause it was so many people there. And, ah, then we heard another series of shots and probably - it was probably the fifth shot we heard is the one that - that hit her. So she got hit in the shoulder. And we didn't know what it was. You know, she was just like, "Ahhhhhhhh." She started screaming and she's like, [REDACTED] my arm, my arm." So I turned around and I'm like, "Well what's wrong with your arm," like, "What happened to you?" You know, and, ah, she's just like, "Oh, my God, my arm, my arm." So, um, a lady next to us kind of pulled her, like, she's like, "Are you okay," and kind of pulled her jacket and then that's when we saw all the blood. And, ah, she dropped down to the ground. And so I - I threw off my purse and then did off my tee-shirt 'cause I had an under shirt on. I throw off my tee-shirt and I balled it up to put pressure on her - on her chest 'cause we didn't know like - you know, still didn't know what was going on.

JS: Right.

CA: And, ah...

JS: So at this time she's down on the ground so you're like...

CA: She's down on the ground...

JS: ...kneeling down?

CA: ...and I'm - yeah, laying...

JS: Okay.

CA: ...down on the ground with her putting pressure on her.

JS: Okay.

CA: Well, the bullets just started (simulating the sounds of gunfire) like - from that moment on they just continued like they - there was no more pause. At least that's what it didn't feel like there was. And so people start running, you know, to basically a stampede, you know...

JS: Mm-hm.

CA: ...leaving. And they're kind of falling on her so I try to cover her to protect her 'cause, you know, these people are coming out - just trying to get people off of us, you know, like, "Get off of her." And trying to apply pressure. So, um, the bullets keep coming so we kind of just kind of - we're both down on the ground crouching down and, ah, that's when I got shot.

JS: Okay.

CA: So while I was down with her I got shot in the leg. And, um...

JS: So are they thinking did it go through the front or did it go through the back of your leg?

CA: Through the front.

JS: Okay.

CA: Yeah. So, um, so I get shot in the leg. And then, um, you know, I was like, "We have to run. You know, all these people we need to run." So, um, so we both get up and we just take off running. You know, I think at that point I had so much adrenaline going through me that it - it hurt but it didn't hurt, like I didn't feel the pain, you know. And so we ran towards the east side of the venue behind the - there was like a bunch of vendor booths there. And, ah, there was a fence that looked like it kind of had been knocked down already I think by people crossing.

JS: Mm-hm.

CA: We ran through there into that dirt parking lot where there was a bunch of vehicles.

JS: Okay.

CA: And, um, we - we tried to hide behind some cars, you know, for cover. And, again, I mean it was just (simulating the sounds of gunfire) like just continuous. And, um, a lady came over to us and she's like, "I'm a nurse," you know, "Are you guys hit, are you okay?" And we're like, "We both been shot." Um, so she checked my friend's shoulder. And she said, "I - it looks like a flesh wound I think you'll be okay." And so she's like, "What about you?" And I told her I had been shot in the leg. So she pulled my pant leg up and kind of squeezed down and when she did blood just started gushing out of my leg. So, um, she - the guy that was with her she grabbed his tee-shirt like, "Give me your shirt," and then she put like a tourniquet kind of, um, on my leg.

JS: Okay.

CA: And at that point that's when I really started to feel the pain.

JS: Right.

CA: And, um, so Heli he's like, "We need - you know, we have to keep going." The man - the man who was there too was like, "Keep running, like don't stay still just keep going." So, um, 'cause like again the bullets hadn't stopped. So we went to leave to try to find cover behind another vehicle a little further back. And, ah, I told my friend, I was like, "I - I can't run," like, "I just, I can't," I started to feel the pain. And she's like, you know, "I told you I would drag you if I had to," - you know, she grabbed me by the hand and - and she just she pulled me and so we kind of I hobbled, you know, ran but we went behind another - another vehicle. And at that point there was a guy like a young - a younger guy probably in his maybe mid- well, probably - probably mid-20's, maybe a little younger than that. And he was saying that he was a, um, that he did medivac or something with the military, I don't remember, exactly what - what it was. And, ah, and he's like, you know, "Who's hurt, who's hurt?" And we're like, "We've both been shot." So he went and he's like, "Just wait right here." He went and got a pickup truck. And, ah, he came over to where we were and then these guys kind of just came out of nowhere started helping put people in the truck so they kind of - they threw me and my friend in the truck.

JS: And this was just like a regular pickup truck?

CA: Yeah, it was like a...

((Crosstalk))

JS: 'Cause we had some - some lady like, you know, good on her, she went and stole a police truck and was loading up people so.

CA: Yeah, her...

JS: But it wasn't the police truck?

CA: No, it wasn't the police truck.

JS: A regular truck, okay.

CA: Yeah, I want to say it was gray, I can't really - a couple of reporters have asked me...

JS: Yeah, no, that's fine.

CA: ...and I'm like, "I don't know." But I want to say it was like just a gray pickup truck. Um, they threw us back there and we - it was a toolbox at the end of the truck so we kind of just shimmied our way and hid underneath so for extra cover. And, ah, and he like pulled forward and he would stop. And then he would pull forward and he would stop and we're like, "Why are you stopping," you know, "Like just please get us to the hospital." But in the meantime he was just, you know, throwing people in there so like we just had bodies falling on us. You know, people who had been shot in the arm, leg. One girl at the edge of the truck with, um, like she had been shot in the eye so that one looked really bad. I don't know if she made it or not. But, um, he loaded us up and he was - said he was gonna take us to UMC.

JS: Mm-hm.

CA: But, um, got redirected here so ended up bringing us here.

JS: Okay. So how lo- like how many people you think were in that truck?

CA: Probably like eight.

JS: Okay. And you guys drove right here.

DETAILS At the time of the shooting I was working as a cashier at the Backyard BBQ Village. I had just returned from my break when the shooting began. At first everyone working there thought that the sound of the guns came from the show but the the security guard signaled us to run and that's when we saw heaps of people running. We started running and I ran through the concert area because it was the only way to get to my parents. There were so many people running that I was stuck in a crowd with limited movement. When I had reached my parents, I had already seen people fall to the ground and others running, covered in blood. We went directly to the MGM but were told that it wasn't safe there so went in the direction of the New York New York, but again we were told it wasn't safe. We then went down E Tropicana ave and stopped at the Flamingo Las Vegas (Casino Hotel), where there was a dead body, covered outside we the left and turned left on Koval Ln the turned on E Flamingo Rd and got picked up at a gas station.

DETAILS: Heard what I thought was fireworks at first but after repeated shots I knew it was not fireworks. It sounded like gunshots after running for about a minute and got very real at that point. We hid behind cars and ended up hiding in bushes until instructed that it was safe to leave. We climbed under a fence and ran to safety in an adjacent parking lot. I was still scared that the gunman was still active. But my friend, [redacted] instructed us it was clear. Gunshots still occurred as we crossed the fence.

DETAILS:

I had to work Sat 10/30 Sun 10/1 for the route 91 festival. I work for a company named "we serve" I work as an Usher. On Sunday I had to work from 12pm-12am as my day started. We were getting ready for our positions and get instructions. Everything was flowing good. I took my break at 9:30pm I had to be back in position at 10pm as I was taking a break of course I talk to everyone and I was talking to a security guy when we was talking he did seem a little negative and down. I didn't know (he was the one who died till I saw him on the news.) I went back to my position it was 10pm. Then a celebrity came out on stage, he didn't last 5 minutes until he turned left and left the stage running. Shots were already happening. I was by some bleachers all the way in the back standing, as we heard shots nobody knew what it was it sounded exactly a if fire work were coming out, or as if a helicopter was flying around, nobody had an idea.

DETAILS

In the middle of Jason Aldean's concert, a loud, sudden popping sound was heard. Soon Jason Aldean stopped ~~singing~~ singing. When we realized it was a gun, behind us was a girl who was shot. Friends and everyone trying to get help. Then more gun shots went off. My group jumped the fence and went under the stage until we was told to go to the left side of the stage. My group then kept walking until we got to MGM Grand with our family. Everyone was very freaked out & not much was told to do after the shooting stopped. Gun shots came from all over & really not knowing which was best.

DETAILS

We were watching Jason Aldean (@ Route 91) - about 30 mins into his set when we heard what sounded like fireworks. ~~we~~ I looked up to see them but there were none. I heard the same noise again and saw nothing but then saw Jason Aldean leave the stage and knew something was wrong as people started panicking and screaming and running. (We were sat in the Ada section) My mum was in an electric scooter so we got out and ran behind the VIP area to the left of the stage, through railings and towards the hanger at the airport where people started collecting. We stayed there until we were moved to the convention centre.

CONTINUATION

Event #: 171001003519

On October 1, 2017, at approximately 2204 hours, I was off duty and attending the Route-91 Harvest Festival, in the city of Las Vegas. I was at the concert with family and friends, watching Jason Aldean perform. We were to the left of the main stage approximately 75 yards away when I heard the sound of what I believed to be firecrackers. As the sound of the firecrackers continued to go off, I looked to my right and observed a group of people looking towards the floor and at an individual who I believed to have fallen. I continued to watch the performance when the sound of firecrackers continued to get faster. At that point, I observed Jason Aldean run off the stage and out of view. Once the music had stopped, I determined the sound of the firecrackers to be actual gunshots. Since I heard the gun shots coming from my right, I believed the shooter was on the west side of the venue. In order to take some course of action, I ran in a south westerly direction in an attempt to get to the west side of the venue. Once I reached the west side of the venue and hid behind cover, I contacted an on duty Las Vegas Metro police officer, Officer Tran. I advised Officer Tran who I was and advised him that I would assist in any way. While on the west side, the sounds of gun shots were louder and were not stopping. Since I did not see a shooter in the immediate location, I looked up towards the Mandalay Bay Hotel and I observed what I believed to be muzzle flashes coming from an elevated location. I advised Officer Tran of what I observed as he began to put information out on the radio. Once the shooting had stopped, I attempted to help as many people as I could. I was able to assist few individuals who were injured but most parties that I came into contact had succumbed to their injuries. I assisted with carrying bodies out of the venue and with looking for anybody who might still be inside the venue hurt. I remained at the venue until all personnel were gone.

DETAILS @ 10pm I was sitting inside the floor of Blues Bar... Suddenly a few mins later people just start running into Bar. I run to the back patio area, but theres no way out people start trying to push the fence over but its not falling over. I'm asking people "where is the shooting coming from?" NO... One is answering, no one knows. I climb the fence, start running towards Hooters. People are claiming theres actually men shooting inside, & they were coming. It felt like the shooters were right behind me. Finally get to Hooters. Suddenly someone comes out running claiming theres shooters inside. I keep running where I end up @ the airport. Hiding w/ strangers between 2 concrete walls. Finally getting a hold of friends, find out [REDACTED] was shot, but ok. I call my friends that live in Vegas & they pick me up.

DETAILS:

On October 1, 2017 I begin working my shift at 2pm at the route 91 festival. I was working as one of the attendants for [REDACTED] restrooms. At approximately 10:05-10:06 pm I begin to hear popping noises, I thought were fireworks. People begin to run and that's when I realized they were gunshots. My first reaction was to hide. I hid in the restroom after the second round of gunshot I came out. A gentlemen informed me the shots were coming from the hotel. I saw people attempting to jump the fence. I begin to help them get over fence. At around 10:32 the gunshots stopped. I exited near the exit close to an am/pm store at around 10:40 pm.

DETAILS

I was enjoying Jason Aldean when I thought I heard fireworks. Then I saw Jason & his crew flee from the stage, & many people around me started to get on the floor. Right before I got on the ground, I saw a girl who was shot & bleeding & that's when I knew it was a shooting. Eventually we started running towards the air port & I ended up in an airport pylon. I did not see a shooter or anything specific, but I was under the impression that the shots were fired from either the mandalay or luxury. supposedly someone saw lights of a gun going off at the balcony of the mandalay. I don't remember who said that or saw it though.

DETAILS

I was standing watching Jason Aldean on the far left side of the stage. Close to the Coca Cola suites. I heard 2-3 sharp pops and we all thought it was fireworks. After a brief pause I heard rapid fire guns shooting and saw a whole crowd running my way. A whole crowd of us ran for our lives and made it to a side street. I made it to the back of an airport hangar where we were escorted inside and wanted to be taken to UNLV center.

I HAVE READ THIS STATEMENT AND I AFFIRM TO THE TRUTH AND ACCURACY OF THE FACTS CONTAINED HEREIN. THIS STATEMENT WAS COMPLETED AT (LOCATION) THOMAS & MACK

The following is the transcription of a tape-recorded interview conducted by DETECTIVE T. GARRETT (TG), P# 7583, on 10-03-17 at 1854 hours.

TG: This is Detective Garrett with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department doing an interview with [REDACTED]. The Event# is 171001-3519. Uh, date and time is October 3, 2017. Time is 1854 hours. And [REDACTED] could you please give me your name, date of birth, and address and tell me what happened.

GB: My name's [REDACTED] and, um, my address is [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] and date of birth is [REDACTED]. And what happened at the, uh, scene yesterday or two days ago at Route 91. Um, we heard like fireworks. K- it sounded like fireworks in the air at first. So we - I looked up and, like, we looked up and there was nothing there. And then, um, Jason Aldean stopped singing. And then once the, uh, gunshots stopped, he kept singing and then, um, it came again, so he ran off and everyone just, like, took cover, I guess. And then a person behind me, um, he stood up and was like, "It's not gunfire," so more people stood up and then another set of rounds came and, um, it hit everyone and you just saw bodies hit the floor. And then, um, that's when it was like real. Like everyone was like, this is real. Um, the whole - everything was pitch black. Uh, my boyfriend jumped on top of me and he was like, "It's okay," and he saved my life. But, um, he, uh, so, it would stop for a second and then it went again and that's when I felt it in my, uh, in the back of my butt. And, um, I didn't know it was a gunshot at first, I thought it was a metal, like, ball, like, hitting my back. So, it was kind of like a big circle around my entire leg. But - and then when it stopped, the firing, he told me like, "We have to go," like. So we ran and my adrenaline was so high that I just had to keep running. And, um, after the scene, I saw a police car and then they took me in, uh, to the stationary ambulances and, um, they ended up taking me to - an Uber actually took me to a, uh, the hospital.

TG: Oh, okay.

GB: Yeah.

TG: Okay. And, uh, that is the end of the interview and the time - end time is 1856 hours.

BE: Okay [REDACTED], can you tell me what transpired on October 1st at the Route 91 Festival?

KB: So I remember taking my last recorded video at 10:02 pm. Um, I had looked back at my photos to see the timestamp. And I think about five minutes later - the next - beginning of the next song I started hearing the sound of, like, firecrackers. And it was back - back - back - back - back to back - no recoil on the sound. So first a - nobody really thought it was a gun. When it happened a second time people were getting more scared and started to run. And I just went down on the ground with some other people fr- around me.

BE: Where were you standing?

KB: So I'm sure you guys have a map.

BE: Mm-hm.

KB: Um, there's the main stage and it's kind of like a loop around this thing that's - there's two things that stick out into the middle. One coming from the stage - one coming from, like, lights and a bar's set up on either side. I was to the right, uh, if you're looking at the stage. Closer to the back where the part sticks out towards the stage. I was still on the grassy area.

BE: Okay. By that little platform for the performers to walk out on and perform?

KB: Right. That one - I was - if there's the platform here that they walk out on and here's the thing that sticks out towards the stage. There's a little walkway - I'm like right here.

BE: Okay.

KB: So I'm, like, pretty - I'm at the edge of - pretty much the edge of this grassy knoll...

BE: Okay.

KB: ...they set up.

BE: Okay. When, uh, when you - y - y - you got down on the ground what happened then?

KB: I remember seeing flashes coming from the Mandalay Bay and not - it was during the sounds but it was a little delayed so I didn't know wha- if it was related or not. It could be from - but I just remember seeing flashes coming from the hotel accompanying with the sounds. And then, um, all of a sudden I got shot - hit by something in my back.

BE: Okay. Just one time?

KB: Just one time. It felt like - it was, like, a really hard impact. Um, I don't remember how I was really leaning down 'cause I got shot in the back. But I - I can't remember. I don't think I was facing the stage. I think I was a little more turned at this point. 'Cause it entered my back kind of like at a...

BE: Were you...

KB: ...angle.

BE: ...were you face down or face up?

KB: Uh, I was k - kind of, like, just crouching.

BE: Crouching? Okay. Um, after you realized you were struck what'd you do?

KB: Um, it took us a while to get our bearings together and realize we need to get outta here. We started following people leaving. And at this point most people had already ran - I remember seeing it cleared out pretty quickly. To - they ran towards the exits. So we ran towards the side wall so we could get out without being, like, trampled on.

JT: Mm-hm.

KB: Um, I had to climb over the fence by the Nashville stage. So if you're looking at the Nashville stage I climbed to - over a fence to the right of it outside of the tent area.

And there was a table for - just randomly in front of the fence - or someone may have put it there. But I used that to get over the fence.

BE: Okay. What'd you do when you got over the fence?

KB: We started walking towards Desert Rose Resort.

BE: Okay.

KB: And there were a bunch of people walking that way. I remember seeing some cop cars set up - some SWAT team. And I started coughing up blood. That's when a - my friend was telling me that we need to get to Desert Rose. 'Cause we knew some people were staying there or that - it was a safe area - or an easy area to get picked up at.

JT: Mm-hm.

KB: 'Cause the other places were blocked off.

JT: Mm-hm.

KB: And I fell down - I'm bruised here a little bit, um, right in front of Desert Rose. And that's when they started realizing I had gotten hit. Since there was no exit wound there wasn't as much blood so they - we didn't realize it un- until I started coughing up the blood.

JT: Okay.

BE: Did you - how'd you get to the hospital?

And some other people I don't remember were helping me to assess the wound. Um, then I - I don't know - just a random SWAT guy came by, um, and I think he had some type of tape to just put over the wound.

JT: Mm-hm.

KB: And he just popped it on there and kept going 'cause he needed to help other people.

BE: Mm-hm.

KB: The other people who were around - someone offered to drive in, like, a huge SUV. I can't remember if there were other people in there as well. But on our way to the hospital, I just remember hearing somebody say, "There's an ambulance - see if they can take her." Um, 'cause they knew I was shot. So I was able to take this ambulance here.

BE: The person - the paramedic from out of state. Do you know what they look like?

KB: Uh, it was a woman with a bunch of tattoos. She was wearing just a sports bra and pants. She had a ha- black hat on and a backpack. Um, she had brown hair. Uh, she was fairly young and I don't remember her name.

BE: Do you remember what state she practiced, uh, practiced in? Okay. Okay.

Uh, and it was just, like, get down get down. So I immediately just crouched down. And I'm tryin' to look through the crowd to see where this guy is but I couldn't see anything. Um, and I told, uh, my wife, you know, get down get down - and her girlfriend [REDACTED] that was with us, like, you girls - you've gotta get down. JM: Go ahead. Um, okay. How did, uh, how did you guys get outta there? Or how did you get outta there?

CB: I just kept, uh, well when there was, uh, I just kept running towards, uh, MGM. Um, and then, uh, I was in the MGM and a nurse sat me down and she started to tend to my wound, and - but then there was - somebody yelled, "They're coming, they're coming." So I think there was misinformation that there was more gunmen. So I was like, you've gotta be kidding me. I wa- at that point I was pissed.

DK: Yeah.

CB: 'Cause I - I tho- I thought that I found refuge. And, uh, I had my phone on my lap and my license 'cause they were taking down the information. I had oxygen on - and I just got up and I bolted outta there. It's like, you gotta be kiddin' me. Um, and at that point my arm is just, like, dangling so I'm like plastic man runnin' down the street. Um, I flagged down a car and this couple said, "Get in, get in" and they dropped me off here.

JM: Did you get their names, or?

JB: I do.

CB: I - we have it.

JB: Uh, I have their names and a phone number.

DK: Yeah. Uh, I, uh, I was at the Wynn when it happened. Um, so we had misinformation. Everybody did. So we thought they were goin' from hotel to hotel.

DK: Yes.

JB: Yeah.

DK: I think that's what happened.

JB: Yeah.

SS: Oh. I don't know.

CB: Makes sense.

JB: Yeah because...

DK: 'Cause I - I didn't - I thought maybe somebody was callin' in misin- misinformation - like this was a really well set up deal. But I'm pretty sure it was because people saw injured people comin' in.

CG: So we were at the main stage and the main stage was divided between kinda, like, a walkway where the performers could walk down the middle so if you're looking at the stage we were on the right side of the stage about - I'm really bad with feet, um, oh well actually the VIP section was to the right of us...

CH: Um, what - explain how it all started in your perspective.

CG: Well so I remember hearing what I thought was - I think they call them a brick of fireworks...

CH: Right. Yeah.

CG: ...um, I thought it was that. And the only reason I say that is because someone to the right and then about 20 paces up - so maybe 20 paces right, 20 paces up...

CH: Mm-hm.

CG: ...had shot off a, um, like, a confetti tube.

CH: Okay. Yeah.

CG: Like, right at the same time so I thought...

CH: Terrible timing.

CG: ...it was not, you know, it was just someone being stupid and lighting off fireworks with that. But then I - so I didn't think anything of it. I turned around and in front of our group -- and by this time people were yelling and screaming and running -- and to the left of me was a girl on the ground and, um, I saw her bleeding - that's when I knew it was not fireworks. Um, and, her party or her -- I don't know if they were with her or just people -- started yelling and saying call 911 she's not breathing. Um, and then I just - I looked to the right again back to our party and I saw her brother laying on the ground on his back and he appeared to not be breathing. And then I knew he wasn't breathing when my wife -- she's an ultrasound tech, um, I - I may not be recalling it right but she's kinda feisty and I think she was tellin' everyone to get out of the way and she started doing CPR and started doing compressions. Someone was breathing and then I think they rotated. Like, she started breathing - well I mean I know she started doing mouth-to-mouth and I think then they rotated a coup- -I don't know who else was going it - I don't remember.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

CH: Okay.

CG: Um, and then next thing I remember is - she had - I just remember her seeing her at his feet. No it's fine. This thing goes off if I move my hand too much. I saw her at his feet so I figured she was tired and couldn't do the compressions anymore and I was, uh, I went over there 'cause her mom was upset 'cause her son was on the floor...

CH: Right.

CG: So I kinda crawled over there to tell her, you know, he's gonna be okay, he's gonna be okay. Um, and that's when I saw her get shot, um, in the left buttocks I think. And then shortly after - I mean a millisecond I felt something in my left side and I told my wife [REDACTED] I said I've been shot and she started screaming and said, "Where? Where?" And I told her and she lifted up my shirt and looked and I just remember her saying, "Oh my God. Oh my God. We gotta go. We gotta go." Um, but I had no strength...

CH: Right.

And she started yelling at me and told me to, "Get the fuck up and run," crawl do whatever I had to do. So she saved my life 'cause I knew the longer I laid on the ground...

CH: Take your time. Take your time 'cause I don't want you to get too excited.

CG: The longer I laid on the ground the more time they had to shoot her and she was exposed so I - I just started crawling. She grabbed my arm and was kind of pulling and I was trying and then we got to those bleachers and I remember laying on my belly and then some man -- and I know now it was his wife -- was there and, um, I believe he said he was a vet - ex-military...

CH: Mm-hm.

CG: And he said they needed a shirt so my wife took her shirt off and gave it to him to put compressions and - and then they were asking me if I was okay and I remember - I remember just wanting to go to sleep. I couldn't stay awake...

CH: Right.

CG: ...and so I heard the man say she's gonna bleed out if we don't get her to a hospital. So he goes -- you know, yelling at me not in a mean way but saying -- you gotta get on your feet, you gotta get on your feet. So I, um, I did. I stood up. His wife had her hand on my side holding the shirt and he had his arm under my armpit on the other side and we were just running as fast as we can - as we could towards the exit. I think it was gate near - oh it was the VIP Gate near Gate 3. And, um, we got out and he put me on the ground next to a car and then I saw, like, it was almost like three people come up saying they were nurses, um, or EMT -- it was kinda both -- and some girl said her name was Christine was holding my hand and was saying I was gonna be okay and they were getting a car and, um, and then, uh, a car pulled up and they told me to get in the car, along with a lady who had been shot I think in the shoulder and her husband - so we got -- or boyfriend. We got in the backseat, my wife got in the front seat and I believe he was an Uber driver. He was an older white man but foreign because I couldn't understand him really...

CH: Mm-hm.

CH: Mm-hm.

CG: ...because it just didn't seem right if you're an Uber driver how do you not know where the nearest hospital is. And he was doing everything - what looked like very slow motion to me. So I said, "I don't the guy. I don't trust him. I want out. I want out." And the husband said the same thing of the - the lady said the same thing and [REDACTED] was just yelling at him, "Go, go, go." The EMT or fireman -- I don't remember which -- grabbed me, asked me where I was shot, she told him, he put me on the ground on, like, a mat - a trauma mat and said to lay there but someone else - I just remember someone else saying she gotta go, she gotta go, and so they put me on a - they picked me up by my hands and feet and put me on a - on a gurney and put me in the back of the ambulance. CH: Um, yeah as for that - with the - when they were talkin' with the crazy lady talkin' I think it was just like that - just a crazy lady runnin' her gums. And, um, I don't know if there was anybody detained for that, um...

EM: They did say on the new - they were talkin' when they first put out that his girlfriend was a person of interest and they were lookin' for her - that's before they knew - that was immediately, like, when they found out who he was, where he lived and that he had a partner, um, they didn't know where she was at so they immediately just put out that they were looking for this person as a person of interest to figure out where she's at. And when they found out that she was out of the country at that time they said that she's no longer an interest at that point. So they're not actively looking for her like she could be further up the strip or somewhere out of town. It was just at that point they were saying okay we don't need to look for her anymore but she's still going to be investigated to find out...

CH: As of right now they are talkin' - they're gonna talk to her.

CG: It sounds like two people mixed into one story or something.

EM: Yeah. We know 100% there was that other crazy lady that was going around and that hasn't been any part of our investigation. They haven't said anything so obviously they'll keep digging into that further to find out more.

CG: Okay. And I just ask that because I haven't been watching the news so...

CH: Right.

EM: They have gone to two homes that he owns. One in one part of Nevada and one in the northern part of Nevada. So they've tracked down those things to try to figure out if he's left any kind of clue or anything like that as to why. There's - right now everything points to one of those things that doesn't make sense. There's no history. You know, they said that he hadn't had a parking ticket in the last...

CG: That's what I've heard. I heard that ISIS - again people talking - that ISIS took credit and then backed down right away and said they didn't.

CH: Uh, yeah. It did come out as ISIS and that he had converted. But there's no substantiating evi- evidence of it.

Uh, I was sitting next to, um, he was a certified EMT - he's a friend of ours his name is [REDACTED]

CH: Mm-hm.

CG: It was [REDACTED]?

AL: Mm-hm. He was standing next to me and I looked at him when the first shots went off and, um, I kinda saw a green light up by the floors of Mandalay Bay when it was happening 'cause we were looking around trying to figure out where it was.

CH: Right.

AL: Um, I looked at [REDACTED] 'cause it was my first instinct and he said it was probably fireworks or something because that's what it sounded like 'cause it was very loud in there. Um, and then the second shots went off and we made eye contact and he jumped on top of me and his girlfriend. Um, and then we all kinda jumped down and after they were down firing those second shots, um, one of my brother's good friends is LAPD, um, and he came over to find me to make sure I was okay. Um, took me over to my brother. Um, I'm standing over him obviously. And then, uh, my mother made me go with, um, our other family friends so I was sprinting as fast as I could with my out of date soccer skills. Um, and that's when the third round went off and I was with two moms and two of our close family friends and we ducked behind a trash can. Um, firing stopped, went off again, uh, ducked behind another trash can -- I believe that was the fourth one -- and then we got to kind of like a titanium bar and that was when the fifth one went off. And we were kinda by the exits -- there was if you walk straight back there were porta potties and going to the right was the exit. And there were bins right behind the porta potties that we were wedged in between because, uh, that was when I think the fifth or the sixth firing went off...

CH: Okay.

AL: ...and then it stopped. So we went -- on our way out ran towards Tropicana and they have the sirens going off and someone said that there was another shooter on the strip and so we started running towards the Hooters parking structure 'cause there was a cinder block wall and that's what me and, um, one of the moms said that we need to get behind. And, um, they said that there's still that shooter so we climbed in the bed of a truck for about 20 minutes or so and then the only way out was back on the strip. So we managed to flag down a, uh, car that was going by and he drove us to the South Point Resort...

CH: Yeah.

AL: ...I think that's what it's called.

CH: Way south?

AL: Yeah. And, uh, one of our family friends has a relative out here so him and his roommate came and picked us up and then, um, that's when I found out my mom had got hit...

We weren't allowed to see my brother until his surgery.

CH: Yeah. Usually ICU they're pretty strict about that.

AL: Yeah. So he had, um, gotten shot in the, uh, right arm. So they took a vein from his leg and put it into, um, part of it because it kinda went through and he had internal bleeding right around here...

CH: His heart...

AL: Yeah. They ripped - they hitched the auxiliary artery I think it was - yeah so they lifted up his ribcage and stuff and got all that out so. So he's a little groggy and everything but...

EM: I'll bet.

AL: ...for the most part he's okay. He's - he's being a smartass.

CH: He's gonna survive. Right?

AL: Yeah. He's okay. He just doesn't...

EM: Somebody there - if I remember your last name as one of the names they gave out somebody's going to interview him.

AL: My brother?

EM: So that's a good sign because they only gave us the names of the people that they knew that would be able to try to talk or attempt to talk with us so - so that's a good sign.

AL: Just...

CH: There's still probably - we're interviewing - our team is interviewing 30 people right now so.

AL: If you, um, want I have [REDACTED] was - he was in Afghanistan and everything so he's a vet and LAPD and all that so I have his phone number if you want. He was aware of everything that was going on at the time.

CH: Yeah. Go ahead and say it on the recording. So it's [REDACTED] what's his last name?

AL: [REDACTED]

CH: [REDACTED]

AL: [REDACTED]

CH: [REDACTED]

AL: So it's [REDACTED]

EM: Can you reach that?

CH: Okay. Do you buy any chance remember how many volleys of shots were - were fired?

AL: There were at least 15 or 20 per clip.

CH: So shooting, break, shooting...

AL: Five or six.

CH: So five or six volleys?

AL: At least five.

CG: I have - I mean after I was shot I heard it but I don't really remember when it stopped and when it...

CH: Right. Right.

CG: 'Cause I do remember about half way out of the VIP area we didn't - I didn't hear anything anymore. To the point people were walking very casually.

AL: Um, so I heard five for sure. When we were in the Tropicana we thought we heard more but we were also inside so we're not 100% positive.

CH: Right. I'll explain that once we turn the recorder off.

AL: Um, so, [REDACTED]'s phone number is [REDACTED]

CH: Okay.

AL: [REDACTED]

CH: Okay. And that's [REDACTED]?

AL: Yes.

CH: Excellent. Do you have anything else?

DETAILS I was up by the stage when the shooting started. Everyone didn't know what was going on until Jason Addeman ran off stage and everyone yelled to get down. After what felt like 10 minutes on the ground, me, my girlfriend and sister jumped the barrier to the stage to take cover and escape. I saw many people being treated for what looked like gun shot wounds. From there we fled the Route 91 grounds to seek shelter at one of the nearby hotels.

DETAILS:

I was at the concert with [REDACTED]. During the concert we were standing south east of the wall stage when the shooting began. We were so far up in the crowd all we could do was crouch down until the crowd cleared, then we made it to the east side of the stage. We ended up between the stage, the pizza trailer & the back perimeter fence. We were stuck there until finally someone shouted to people in front of us to keep moving. We ran around the fence until we got to the road behind the venue (I think it was Reno St) it was parallel to LV-5. People started climbing the chain link fence & a security guard yelled out stop climbing you could get shot. The people started pulling up the fence from the bottom & started going under the fence. The guard yelled there's an exit here so we all started running out onto the back road. We went to Carla's car parked at hand ramp. While driving out we ended picking up two victims (one shot in the head the other shot in the buttocks). The one shot in the buttocks did not want to go. She said there were people more seriously wounded that someone else should go. Next her friend pushed her into the car. We ended up at Desert Spine Hospital. While there I walked around the hospital asking people if they called the family + friends to let them know they were OK. Most people there had someone shot and in surgery or in the back. This young lady was there & their cousin was in shot & they did not know where she was - they started praying & I prayed with them. There was also a man next to me that had a postmaster & in debt I was making sure he did not get worse - I told to watch to make sure his eyes did not roll back. If they did I was suppose yell for security.

Just want to know if the girls both made it through surgery if possible.
